Musicians Win Honor For South

South High School's Spartan Concert Band, backed by a team of six solo and ensemble players, for the sixth year won high ratings at the Southern California District Band solo and ensemble competitions last week at Leuzinger High School. These competition festivals have been held in various districts throughout the South Bay with thirty or more bands participating from the Peninsula through the Santa Monica area. The concert band, soloists, and ensembles, under the leadership of Glenn F. Hawley, director of the music department at South High School, returned with two ratings for superior performance and four ratings of excellence. The Spartan concert band of 80 pieces has now placed four consecutive years for participation in Regional (State) competition festivals. VANCE STEFAN, cellist, and Rhonda Beckman, pianist, popular instrumental team from South High School, won superior honors for their performance of the "Vivaldi Concerto in E Minor," duet for cello and piano.

Church Hosts Rally

An area Youth Rally of missionary churches will be held Saturday night at 7, at the Lomita Missionary Church, 2043 Lomita Blvd. The program will include special music from the youth groups and a quiz contest from the Book of Acts.

Dave Eden, senior trumpet soloist of the Spartan Band, also, the Drum Major and Band Captain, won excellent honors for his performance of "La Virgen de La Macarena." The piano accompaniment was provided by Raul Matute. The South High School clarinet trio: Douglas Vogl, Robert Simon, and Gregory Bailey, won excellent honors for their performance of the Beethoven "Minnetto, Trio, and Finale for B-flat Clarinet."

The Rev. David Sieman, returned missionary from South America, will conduct special Lenten services at the Lomita Missionary Church, 2043 Lomita Blvd. He will speak Sunday through Friday at 7:30 p.m.
